

Factors effecting construction contractors' performance

Assaf, Sadi A. (King Fahd Univ of Petroleum and Minerals); Al-Hammad, Abdul-Mohsen; Ubaid, Ahmed Source: Building Research and Information, v 24, n 3, May-Jun, 1996, p 159-163

ISSN: 0961-3218 CODEN: BREIEA

Publisher: Chapman & Hall Ltd

Abstract: A number of interesting and important aspects have been achieved in this research; in particular, that quality of work should be of major concern to contractors and could become a pre-requisite in any selection process by the client body. Contract documentation should be clear and should not include ambiguous clauses and contradictory documentation, as this only leads to problems for all parties during the contract and a low performance rating from the contractor. (4 refs.)