

Principles of Partnership Law in Malaysia

The 2005 edition of this very popular and informative book, like the 1998 edition, has again demonstrated that the book is much in demand due to its compatibility with partnerships taught courses requirements and the precise and clear language in which it is written.

The salient features of this book are:

- Coverage of rules relating to the following:
  - Where Malaysian Partnership Law can be found
  - Statutory definition of partnership and what constitutes partnership business
  - Rules relating to determination of the existence or non-existence of partnership
  - How to form a partnership
  - The Firm and the different categories of partners
  - Relations of partners with others
  - Relations of partners with each other
  - Instances in which a partnership may be dissolved
  - Sudanese Partnership Law (in general)
- Dealing with English and Malaysian court decisions that illustrate or contrast the rules in question
- Explaining and presenting the principles of partnership law in Malaysia and in Sudan in a way that generally makes the book suitable for law practitioners and for both Law and Business students.
